

Mole Valley Orienteering Club

(affiliated to British Orienteering)

www.mvoc.org

COME & TRY ORIENTEERING NONSUCH PARK

Saturday 28th September 2013

The first of two Come & Try Orienteering events for the Autumn in Nonsuch Park, Cheam

This event is suitable for families walkers, joggers and runners. Everyone is welcome!

There will be three courses available:

Short 2km easy

Longer 3km slightly harder

Score event for more experienced orienteers

Map provided: Specially drawn orienteering map of Nonsuch Park at scale of 1:10,000

Registration & Start times

10.00am – 11.30am

The Registration will be at the MVOC club tent situated close to the Cheam Gate car parks.

Help and tuition will be available.

Fees: £3 per adult or family

Under 21's free

Equipment required: suitable footwear ie trainers, full leg cover advisable, waterproofs if wet. Compass useful but not essential, an SI dibber (orienteers) if you have one but are available for loan.

Nonsuch Park is an attractive area of parkland, open fields and woodland situated to the north of Epsom between Ewell and Cheam villages. The park can be accessed at various points around it's perimeter but the main entrances are either the Cheam Gate entrance off Ewell Road or off the A24 London Road.

The park entrances are a short walk away from Stoneleigh, Ewell West, Ewell East and Cheam rail stations.

Please visit our web site www.mvoc.org for more information about Orienteering and for any updates on this event.